Plan Your Day with Blue Mountains Explorer

Blue Mountains in One Day

Only have one day to see the Blue Mountains? No problem. Use the Explorer Bus and you can do all the highlights in ease and comfort. Stand on the 3 Sisters, watch the Scenic Railway, see the waterfalls and more. Here's the action-packed guide to a Blue Mountains day tour you'll never forget.

- Katoomba Street
Jump off the train and collect your Explorer Bus Pass from the ticket office right next to Katoomba station. Watch the Art Deco storefronts of Katoomba Street slide by as your driver steers you through town and shares a few essential sightseeing tips.
- Scenic World
Hop off at Scenic World for unique views of the Blue Mountains wilderness. (*Rides at Scenic World are optional extras at your own expense.)
- Cliff Tops and Valleys Tour
Meet the Explorer Bus at Scenic World and get your breath back as the bus takes you on a beautiful drive around past Eagle Hawk Lookout, and Narrow Neck Lookout
- Honeymoon Lookout to Echo Point Bushwalk
Hop off the bus at Stop 15 and cross the road to Honeymoon Lookout
- Eco Point and The Three Sisters
As you emerge from the trees and walk out toward the edge of ECHO POINT, the Blue Mountains most epic view opens before you.
- Time for Lunch
LOOKOUT AT ECHO POINT is a convenient place to grab a snack with great views from the terrace, or you could hop on the Explorer Bus (sit on the right of the bus for fabulous views of the Kedumba Valley) and ride around to Stop 16 for SOLITARY Cafe, or the Rooster Restaurant for French Food. Alternatively, pack a picnic and eat al fresco on the grassy lawns at your next stop – lovely Leura Cascades. (*Food and beverages at your own expense)
- Leura Cascades
We suggest you give yourself an hour to enjoy this beautiful and popular spot
- Pool of Siloam and Lyrebird Dell
Hop off at Stop 18 and discover one of the hidden treasures of the Blue Mountains.
- Everglades Historic House and Garden
Stay on the bus and ride through Leura's neatly manicured lawns and hedges to EVERGLADES (show your Explorer Bus pass here for a big discount on entry. *Entry fee at your own expense).
- Leura Village
Before you jump on the train back to Sydney, treat yourself to the very Blue Mountains ritual of a Devonshire Tea in one of Leura's great cafes. (*Food and beverages at your own expense)
- The Train Home

The Rainy Day Special

Most days in the Blue Mountains come with sparkling bright sunshine and clear skies. But it does sometimes happen that the mist rolls in or the rain comes down. The forest comes to life in the mist and our waterfalls put on a spectacular show after even a little rain. Grab umbrella and come play!

- Blue Mountains Cultural Centre World Heritage Exhibition
Make the best of bad weather by visiting this excellent MUSEUM AND ART GALLERY.
- Reid's Lookout, Furber Steps and Scenic World
The best place to be on a rainy day is beside a roaring waterfall. (*Rides at Scenic World are optional extras at your own expense.)
- Hot Chocolate at The Blue Mountains Chocolate Company
While your warm hands grip the steaming mug of hot chocolate, watch through the big glass window as the in-house chocolatier creates delicious chocolate treats. (*Food and beverages at your own expense)
- Echo Point and The Three Sisters
Misty days can be magical here

- Lunch
Try Solitary Cafe for lunch in style, or the Rooster nearby for French comfort food. (*Food and beverages at your own expense)
- Leura Cascades Bushwalk
This is one of the best places to savour the Blue Mountains on a rainy day
- Leuralla Toy and Railway Museum
If it's truly too wet to be out, check out this WONDERFUL COLLECTION of old tin soldiers, trains, dolls and teddies. Note that the working model railways are all outside in the garden. (*Entry fee at your own expense)
- Afternoon Tea in Leura
Ride the Explorer Bus into beautiful LEURA MALL to have a lovely afternoon tea before heading back to your sweet home. (*Food and beverages at your own expense)

The Blue Mountains with Kids

The Blue Mountains are a natural wonderland and a great place for kids to run, climb and discover the joys of nature. This hand-picked itinerary gives you an easy and fun-filled day that's suitable for kids of any age.

- Katoomba Street
Climb aboard the Explorer Bus at the first stop near Katoomba Station, grabbing top-deck seats for the best views
- Katoomba Cascades and Reid's Lookout
Hop off at Katoomba Cascades (Stop 7) and do the 20-minute walk to the bottom of KATOOMBA CASCADES.
- Scenic World
The rides at Scenic World are suitable for all ages. Many families say this is the most exciting part of their day. (*Rides at Scenic World are optional extras at your own expense)
- Cliff Top and Valleys Tour
Take a rest and enjoy some of your bus driver's stories, and take you on a beautiful drive around to NARROW NECK LOOKOUT
- Lunch with a View at Echo Point
For a good easy lunch with plenty of child-friendly options, grab an outside table at The LOOKOUT AT ECHO POINT. (*Food and beverages at your own expense)
- Echo Point and The Three Sisters
It's time to meet the famous THREE SISTERS. Walk down to the edge at Echo Point and enjoy the most amazing panorama of sheer cliffs, rippling mountain ridges and endless forest.
- Blue Mountains Chocolate Company
Get charged up for an afternoon of exploring, and give the kids a real-life Willy Wonka experience, at KATOOMBA'S AWARD-WINNING CHOCOLATE FACTORY. (It's a 5 minute walk up the road from Echo Point. *Food and beverages at your own expense)
- Gordon Falls Lookout and The pool of Siloam
Hop off at Gordon Falls Park (Stop 18), a great place for a picnic and for kids to run around and play on the swings and slides.
- NSW Toy and Railway Museum
Hop back on the Explorer Bus (or walk up the road, it's not too far) to the NSW TOY AND RAILWAY MUSEUM. Young kids are more likely to enjoy the huge coin-operated model railways out in the gardens. (*Entry fee at your own expense)
- Toy Shops in Leura
Ride the bus into the centre of LEURA VILLAGE and browse the many wonderful shops for unique gifts and fun souvenirs.
- Catch The Train, or Come Drive a Bus
If you're heading back to Sydney you can get straight on the train at Leura. Or hop on the Explorer Bus for one last ride back to the Katoomba store, where you can climb into the driver's seat of the replica Big Red Bus – a unique photo reminder of your fantastic day in the Blue Mountains.

The Easy Rider

Here's one for those days when you want to stop and smell the roses instead of ticking off every single sight. This relaxed one-day itinerary gives you iconic views, a look at some great museums and gardens, and time for a long lazy lunch. See the highlights with minimum effort.

- Kattomba Street
Climb aboard the Explorer Bus at the first stop near Katoomba Station, grabbing top-deck seats for the best views
- Scenic World
Hop off at SCENIC WORLD and take a ride. (*Rides at Scenic World are optional extras at your own expense.)
- Cliff Tops and Valleys Tour
Hop aboard and we'll take you on a tour through some of the most spectacular roadside scenery in the Blue Mountains.
- Eco Point and The Three Sisters
The Explorer Bus drops you right at the entrance to ECHO POINT, where a short level walk leads out to the cliff edge for the best view of the famous Three Sisters.
- Lunch in Leura
Hop back on the Explorer Bus for a relaxing ride through to Leura village, and choose from one of the many great places to eat on and around LEURA MALL. (*Food and beverages at your own expense)
- Everglades Historic House and Garden
Jump on the bus and ride to EVERGLADES, the finest of Leura's many superb gardens. (Show your Explorer Bus Pass for a big discount on the entry fee. *Entry fee at your own expense)
- Afternoon Tea at The Paragon Cafe

Jump off at the top of Katoomba Street and walk down to the Paragon Cafe for coffee and a piece of cake in the historic surrounds of one of AUSTRALIA'S BEST ART DECO BUILDINGS. (*Food and beverages at your own expense)

- Blue Mountains Cultural Centre

From the Paragon it's a short walk through to this excellent art gallery and museum. Learn all there is to know about the natural and human history of the Blue Mountains at the WORLD HERITAGE EXHIBITION. (*Entry fee at your own expense)
