Phillip Island Penguin Parade Afternoon Wildlife Tour Depart from Melbourne

Enjoy the morning exploring Melbourne and visit Penguin Parade in the afternoon.

Phillip Island Penguin Parade Afternoon Wildlife Tour Depart from Melbourne

Planning a late night out or a lazy morning in Melbourne, but still want to fit in a trip to Phillip Island to see the penguins? This is the tour for you.

No early morning hotel pick-up – check. Get the morning to yourself – check. Loads of Australian wildlife – check. Hundreds of cute little penguins waddling up the beach – check!

Being picked up at a respectable hour and is off to Seal Rocks and the Nobbies Centre to take a walk along the boardwalk and soak in the stunning views back towards the Mornington Peninsula from Phillip Island's most western point. Here you can also get a sneak peek of the main event, the Little Penguins, while they hide under the boardwalks and poke their heads out of the burrows waiting for the sunset when their mates return from the ocean.

Just before sunset the tour will head over to the Penguin Parade to take the spots at Penguin Stadium, ready to see the hundreds of Little Penguins as they make their way across the beach and return to their burrows in the sand dunes. See them reunited with their partners, where they give each other a little kiss, do a dance, then waddle up and into their burrows. An unforgettable afternoon – check.

Highlights

- Hand feed wallabies, kangaroos (optional extra at own expense) and watch for joeys.
- Seal Rocks & the Nobbies boardwalk and the best views of Phillip Island's rugged south coast
- Watch the world famous Penguin Parade as hundreds of little penguins come out of the sea at dusk & head back to their burrows for the night
