- Departure point and time is subject to change.
- All meals are prepared onboard the vessels and the kitchen team have limited time to serve the menus. Requests made in advance for special dietary (gluten-free, nut-free, dairy-free), substitutions and modifications of menus on board the cruises will therefore be politely declined.
- The Cruise cannot guarantee that certain products or ingredients (halal, nuts, gluten, dairy, etc.) will not be in our food, and the cruise company explicitly accept no liability in this regard.
- For serious food allergies you must make your own decisions on selecting meals. The staff's comments are only to assist you in making an informed decision.
- The Master of the vessel reserves the right to refuse entry of a passenger onto the vessel and to require a passenger to disembark the vessel in the Master's sole discretion.
- Passengers must not bring any alcoholic beverages or illegal substances onto the vessel.
- Please note that whilst it is delighted to welcome well-behaved children on board the vessels/cruising restaurants, high chairs are not provided due to safety reasons. If you have infants, like an airline, you must book and declare at time of booking (even if they are free of charge), as they must be included in the manifest. If infants are booked in advance, the crew will facilitate extra space for stroller or pram on request. No meals provided for free of charge infants.
