• OVERVIEW •

Tweed River Pot to Plate Adventure Cruise

Led by Yugambeh Aboriginal Tribe Member (Luther Cora), retrace the footsteps of our Indigenous elders and learn more about traditional hunting versus today's commercial practices. Bamboo spears are provided as you wade through the mangrove forests to hunt for mud crabs, stingrays and fish (waterproof waders provided). Enjoy alfresco sand bank dining (tide permitting), while the morning's catch is cooked on a bonfire and celebrate the local Aboriginal culture as you enjoy Yugambeh stories and didgeridoo playing.

Re-embark the vessel and cruise through the oyster leases, taste freshly shucked oysters, pull up commercial crab pots, feed the pelicans and seabirds and try your luck at fishing. Feast on freshly prepared seafood including mud and spanner crabs, prawns, oysters, salads, bread and fruit complimented with a cheese board and unlimited beer, wine and soft drinks

A unique 4-hour Australian Pot to Plate Adventure. Be briefed on the region's evocative past as Luther and the crabber take you into the heart of mud crab headquarters, the Terranora Lakes mangrove system. Exclusive to the tour, guests will retrace the traditional hunting steps of the region's first inhabitants, visit an oyster farm for a tasting session and board a customized runabout in pursuit of the crabber's hidden secrets before the ultimate dining experience ... on a sand bank feasting on a sumptuous seafood harvest presented with the freshest Tweed produce! It's an intimate nature rush where you haul in the crab's pots, pump for yabbies (bait), explore a deserted island and capture a thousand photos.
