• OVERVIEW •

Mandurah Dolphin Island Adventure Cruise

Mandurah is Western Australia's second-largest city, situated under an hour from Perth. Best known for its spectacular waterways, Mandurah offers a unique blend of canals, estuaries, rivers and oceans, all populated with stunning marine life.

WA's largest population of Bottlenose Dolphins are like part of our family in Mandurah. The Peel-Harvey Estuary is also home to more than 130 different species of birds, including many rare migratory shorebirds. The Peel-Yalgroo Wetland is recognised as a site of international significance under the Ramsar Convention on Wetlands.

Mandurah Dolphin Island Adventure Cruise

Mandurah is home to the largest residential population of Indo-Pacific Bottlenose Dolphins in Western Australia, so we guarantee you'll see our world-famous friends or you can cruise again for free. On this adventurous Mandurah dolphin tour you'll:

- See the amazing dolphins up close as they show off their cheeky nature – playing and diving through the water around you.
- Witness the beauty of Mandurah's internationally-recognised wetlands and its abundant birdlife, including pelicans, ospreys and rare North Asian migratory birds (October to March).
- Cross the expansive Peel-Harvey Estuary – the largest estuary system in WA's South West.
- Cruise through the Dawesville Cut – a man-made channel between the Peel-Harvey Estuary and the Indian Ocean – for an open-water adventure cruise along our stunning coastline.
- Learn everything you need to know about Mandurah's dolphins and the region with live commentary from our experienced and knowledgeable tour guides.

Please note: This tour is not suitable for children under 3 years.

Dolphin Guarantee

- Although cruise company anticipate you will see dolphins, the resident Indo-Pacific Bottlenose Dolphins are wild and in their natural environment.
- In the unlikely event that guests are unable to see dolphins on the 'Dolphin Island Adventure Cruise', the crew will notify the office immediately after and guests may rebook free of charge for another date.
- Please visit the ticket office following your cruise to receive voucher/s, which are valid for use within 6 months from the date of cruise. Should that subsequent trip not sight dolphins, cruise company will repeat the process until dolphins are seen.
- The voucher cannot be redeemed on Long Weekends, Public Holidays, WA School Holidays, or on any other type of cruise undertaken by the boat, the 'Spirit of Adventure'. Should the voucher period cover one of those exclusion periods, the term of the voucher will be extended by the related period.
- The voucher/s is not transferable to another person. This voucher is non-refundable and non-transferable.
