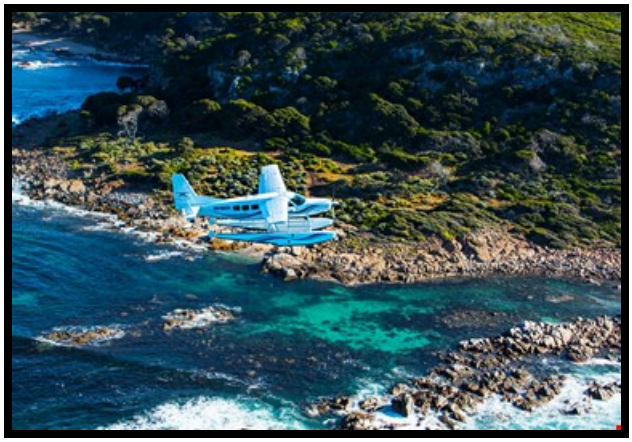
• OVERVIEW •

Margaret River Landplane Day Tour: Depart from Perth

With captivating scenery, wonderful food and top quality wine the Margaret River tours exceed expectations and will give you a day you will never forget.

Margaret River Landplane Day Tour can fly you directly from Perth for a luxury tour of the Margaret River wine region, returning the same day. You will taste the best wines that Australia has to offer and you will fly luxuriously whilst enjoying the incredible views of the South West coastline!



Margaret River Landplane Day Tour: Depart from Perth

You will be picked up from your hotel lobby and fly directly from the state of the art departure lounge at Jandakot Airport to begin your scenic, coastal flight to Margaret River. Overlooking the city scape to spanning over the captivating Western Australian coastline, you will have an exhilarating experience on the journey to Margaret River itself.

Following your stunning flight along the Western Australian coastline, board our coach and you will be introduced to the wines that have made Margaret River stand out as Australia's most exciting premium wine region. Shortly after a Riverside stop to try local produce, you will be guided through the Margaret River township out to the coast. Take in astonishing views of the Indian Ocean from the cliffside and make a toast with a superb example of Margaret River, sparkling wine. You will proceed to visit at least two hand-picked wineries whilst enjoying guided tastings of award winning wines. You will also be treated to a carefully created, delicious winery lunch.

Upon completion of a 5 hour Margaret River experience, you will once again take part in the exploration of amazing views and coastal scenery such as Sugarloaf Rock as you make your way back to Perth.
