• OVERVIEW •

Pink Lake, Kalbarri Gorge and Abrolhos Islands Half Day Nature Tour (No Lunch)

Hutt Lagoon, also known as Pink Lake, is a rare and magical lake on the coastline of Western Australia. Pink Lake is a salt lake in the Mid West region of Western Australia. The lake is not always pink but the distinctive colour of the water changes as a result of green alga Dunaliella salina, halobacterium Halobacteria cutirubrum, and/or high concentration of brine prawn.

The Abrolhos Islands are known as "the last secret area of Western Australia" and are famous for their mystery, magnificence and purity. Every year only fishermen, their families, and a certain amount of tourists are able to visit the island, so this area is as pure as ever. Most notably, tourists are not allowed to stay overnight on the island. At the same time, this is one of the most suitable snorkeling paradise in the world because the coral reef is shallow and has not been damaged, comparable to the Great Barrier Reef. The water temperature is maintained at around 20-22 degrees all year round, so it is suitable for swimming and snorkeling at any time.

Fly past the spectacular coastal cliffs south of Kalbarri, the mouth of the Murchison River and the town of Kalbarri, following the River to Murchison House Station, and then direct to the Loop and the Z Bend gorges of the Murchison River. We follow the River south until it turns to the east towards its source many kilometres to the north east.

Pink Lake, Kalbarri Gorge and Abrolhos Islands Half Day Nature Tour (No Lunch)

Departing from Geraldton, guests will fly direct to Port Gregory - the historic fishing village which back in the 1850's was once was a busy port for the export of lead and the site of a whaling station. You will see the Hutt Lagoon or the "pink lake" which produces beta carotene, a lucrative aquaculture crop estimated to be worth more than $50M a year worldwide.

Following the coastline you will fly past the spectacular coastal cliffs south of Kalbarri, the mouth of the Murchison River and the town of Kalbarri, following the River to Murchison House Station, and then direct to the Loop and the Z Bend gorges of the Murchison River. We follow the River south until it turns to the east towards its source many kilometres to the north east.

After the Kalbarri and Pink Lake part of the tour, guests will be flown to the Abrolhos Islands for a Nature Tour. The beautiful aerial scenic flight includes overflying the fascinating islands in the Pelsaert Group, the Easter Group and the Wallabi Group. You will see beautiful coral, marine life and fishermen's camps and pearl farms, and the historical Weibbe Hayes' Fort - which is the first European building on Australian soil - before landing at East Wallabi Island. Guests walk down to the beautiful Turtle Bay and enjoy morning tea, go snorkelling over the stunning coral in Turtle Bay or enjoy a guided nature walk around the Island, which includes bird watching and wallabi spotting. The return flight takes guests over Long Island, Beacon Island and the Batavia Wreck Site before landing back in Geraldton .
