• OVERVIEW •

Abrolhos Islands Flyover Scenic Tour

The Abrolhos Islands are known as "the last secret area of Western Australia" and are famous for their mystery, magnificence and purity. The beautiful aerial scenic flight includes overflying the fascinating islands in the Pelsaert Group, the Easter Group and the Wallabi Group. You will see beautiful coral, marine life and fishermen's camps and pearl farms, and the historical Weibbe Hayes' Fort - which is the first European building on Australian soil. The return leg of the flight takes guests over Long Island, Beacon Island and the Batavia Wreck Site before landing back in Geraldton.

The Tour

Reference Only. Subject to change without notice. Itineraries may operate in reverse order, in a different sequence, be swapped around, or in rare circumstances be replaced by other best suited items to suit times & conditions.

- Before departure your pilot will provide you with a detailed talk on the Abrolhos Islands including the history and information on the fishing industry as it is today.
- Depart Geraldton at a time of your choosing, overflying this beautiful city and then tracking for an extended scenic overfly of the three main groups of the Abrolhos Islands- The Pelsaert, Easter and Wallabi groups.
- En route the pilot will point out the pearl farms, the historic church on Basile Island, the brightly coloured fisherman camps, marine life including sharks, manta rays, dolphins and migratory whales (in season) and some of the shipwrecks for example - The Zeewijk (1727) and the famous Batavia (1629). And will also overfly Weibbe Hayes' fort, the oldest European building in Australia.
- Upon viewing the Batavia's shipwreck site, the pilot departs overhead Beacon and Traitors Islands to return to Geraldton.
