- It is recommended a reasonable level of fitness for this tour, the most physically challenging part of the trip is the portage around the Sailor Rapid which is done at medium to high river levels. The portage involves a small amount of rock scrambling with a few steps and short ladders up and down, and generally navigable by most people, and a guide will always be close at hand to aid if required.

- If guests need to take medication during the day, give this to the guide who will arrange for it to be carried on the trip.

- If guests wear prescription glasses these should have a strap on them, but normal sunglasses are not necessary or recommended.

• OVERVIEW •

Tasmania Queenstown King River Gorge Raft and Steam Train Experience Half Day Tour

From Queenstown, there are amazing rafting experiences which take guests through the west coast wilderness around the King River. Paddle pristine riverine environment, see Huon Pine and the untouched rainforest, plus learn about the natural and human history of the area from the experienced guides. All tours start from the West Coast Wilderness Railway Station in Queenstown.

King River Gorge Raft and Steam Train Experience Half Day Tour

The King River Gorge Raft and Steam Experience is a collaborative adventure between King River Rafting and the West Coast Wilderness Railway, combining the thrill of white water rafting with a return steam train ride through wilderness and history.

The rafting experience begins on the King River, surrounded by the mountains of the West Coast Range. From the entry point, it will navigate through 7km of the King River Gorge's exciting rapids, from Newall Creek to Dubbil Barril, passing through a remote rainforest gorge past thousands of ancient Huon Pine trees. It's a peaceful day in the wilderness, mingled with some excitement as guests pass through some exhilarating raids, including the famous Sailor Jack Rapid. Guests will catch glimpses of the West Coast Wilderness Railway on the journey. This journey downriver continues until meet the train at Dubbil Barril Station. The return steam train ride takes guests over a steep ridge using the rack and pinion Abt system to move the train out of the gorge and safely down the other side. Homeward bound the train stops at Rinadeena, a water stop for the train and coffee for guests, and again at Lynchford, this time, maybe for a chance at gold panning. The last stop is Queenstown, where the tour ends.

Experience Highlights

- Raft the King River Gorge with exciting Class III Rapids
- Get up close to ancient rainforest and rare Huon Pine trees
- Unspoiled environment of the Garfield River
- Portage the exhilarating Sailor Jack rapid
- Ride the West Coast Wilderness Railway's heritage steam train
- Visit Rinadeena and Lynchford train stations
